

‘Rainbow Star of Life’ Pin Badges

Yorkshire Ambulance LGBT Network created the ‘Rainbow Star of Life’ symbol in 2011 to identify the group within the service. The symbol is a fusion of the internationally recognised symbol of pre-hospital emergency care and the rainbow flag representing the LGBT community.

In 2016 this symbol was adopted by the National Ambulance LGBT Network and has been worn by ambulance staff across the country at many Pride events.

Yorkshire Ambulance LGBT Network is now able to offer the pin badges to other NHS ambulance services. These high quality badges have a sturdy metal back and are filled with coloured enamel sections. Each badge is three square centimetres in size and has a pin to secure to uniforms.
